

2nd Grade News

4/7/17

This week in Science, we completed our study of birds and took a test. In Social Studies, we began a new chapter about cultures and traditions. In English, we learned about adjectives, dictionary entries, and identifying main ideas and details. In Math, we continued working on our subtraction skills and had a test. In Religion, we learned what happened on the road to Emmaus and how to show hospitality to others.
