

April 24th, 2017

Dear Parents,

I hope your ticket sales are going well for the Spring Bazaar- it is April 30th!! More information went home last week about signing up to help or bake a dessert- please check your child's binder. We are looking forward to a successful night☺ (May 1st no school!)

Be working on the Science Fair collections or experiment and please contact me if you have questions.(May 10-11th deadline)

Progress Reports go out Wednesday, April 26th.

Have a good week!

Ms. Steed

What we will be working on April 24th-28th :

Handwriting: Continue: Upper and lower case letters and word practice

Writing first and last names, letters o,x,j

Language Arts:

Continue: Practice using sight words and vocabulary to write sentences and rhyming words. Substitute phonemes to make new words. Sight words: Review: make, play, said, good, all, she, no, make

Continue: Books about spring and growing things

Informational text: From Apple Tree to Store, Pie in the Sky and Apple Pie Tree

Grammar: Exclamations, capitalization/ punctuation

Social Studies: Life Then and Now: Earth Day Celebration activities

Famous American: Dian Fossey- friend of Gorillas

Math: Subtraction Readiness, vertical subtraction, using ten frames to subtract 10, addition and subtraction patterns

Religion: Jesus returns to His Father, Jesus sends us the Holy Spirit, the Church is the Family of God and Jesus is our Light

Science: continue: Connect to science from reading: growing plants.

Complete student books about Observing the Growth of Plants and setting up our Butterfly Garden to watch metamorphosis and the growth of butterflies

*Wear your mass uniform including ties/neckwear on Tuesday

** Button-down shirt for boys instead of polo shirt