

December 3, 2018

Dear Parents,

This week we will be "traveling" to other countries to learn about Christmas traditions and customs. We will be going to Mexico, Germany, France, Israel and Africa. We have a lot of fun learning about where these countries are and how they have influenced our country at this time of the year 😊

Have a blessed week,

Ms. Steed

Reminders for this week:

Tuesday: Mass/ full church uniform: if your child has borrowed a tie- please return or purchase it- thanks!

H.S.A. meeting at 6:30

Friday: Early Release at 1:15

*Christmas Parade

What we will be working on November 26-30, 2018:

ELA: Saxon Phonics letter Bb and Uu: distinguish between sounds that are the same and those that are different/ identify the consonant sound and short vowel sound (practice at home: L, O, G, H, T, P, A, N, M, I, twin consonants ll,ss, S, F, R, K, B, U, (sound and recognition)

Reading: Read alouds : books about Holiday Customs in other countries

Sight words: *practice at home: I, like, the, and, we, end, a, to, see, got, hot, an, not, on, am, him, in, it, you, what, come, me, from, away

Grammar: Work with sentence parts: Subjects and verbs/punctuation

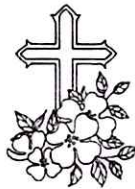

Math: Compare Three Dimensional Shapes/ identify and compare.

Problem Solving : Draw a picture

Science: Continue: Characteristics of animals and birds

Religion: Learning about the Season of Advent

Social Studies: Connect to Language arts: use maps to learn where countries are located/ learn about flags and what they mean

Mass on Tuesday: Full uniform